Attraction arrangements
Arrival arrangements	If you are bringing a group by minibus or coach and need to drop off and pick up your group you can take advantage of coach-parking bays by the Coca-Cola London Eye, please note that space is very limited. This service is complimentary, but must be booked in advance by e-mailing coach@londoneye.com with the following details: Date of visit, time of visit (drop off and pick up times), number of guests, number of coaches, site visiting, coach company, vehicle Registration/s, driver's name. Please note that you are only permitted to use a parking bay for 20 minutes whilst you drop off and then pick up your group and you are not permitted to stay whilst the group visits the London Dungeon.
Parking	Please go to the 'Visitor Information' pages on the website for the most convenient car park in relation to the attraction.
First aid	The London Dungeon has medical / first aid facilities which are operated by a dedicated team of qualified first aiders. Nearest hospital: St Thomas' Hospital
Emergency planning	The London Dungeon has a contingency plan in the event of an emergency. The emergency plan has been developed in conjunction with the local emergency services and on site team who have regular meetings regarding emergency procedures.
Fire safety	In the event of an emergency please follow all evacuation procedures – all staff are fully trained in the evacuation procedures of the building.
Wheelchair access	On arrival at The London Dungeon, please speak to a staff member on the front entrance steps. You will be escorted into the building via step-free access next to The London Eye Ticket Office. Navigating around The London Dungeon will be mainly via level pathways. However due to the nature of the attraction some floor surfaces are uneven. There are moments where the flooring can move, so we would recommend applying the brakes of your wheelchair whenever in a stationary position. The attraction does cover three levels, however we do have a lift, and staff are in place to assist you around the tour. Please be aware of the following restrictions for our two rides: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Tyrant Boat Ride: The ride is not accessible to wheelchair users who are not able to transfer themselves into a boat without assistance, or visitors who cannot use stairs</li> <li>• Drop Dead - Drop Ride to Doom: All riders must have the ability to sit upright on the ride and brace themselves against the ride forces; wheelchair users must be able to transfer un-aided into and out of the ride seats.</li> </ul>
Lost children	Please report to member of staff or security guard
Unruly children	The attraction has regulations displayed at the entrance. Staff are trained to enforce these regulations for the benefit of all guests. Staff will instruct children to behave where necessary.
Age / height restrictions	The minimum age restriction for children to enter the attraction without an adult is 16; any child 15 and under must be accompanied by someone over the age of 18. Please note we do not recommend the Dungeon for young children or those of a nervous disposition. The Dungeon is very dark and children under 12 may find it scary. The London Dungeon

	'Drop Dead' ride you have to be taller than 1.2 meters.
Lockers / storage facilities	There are no lockers or storage facilities at our attraction. All bags must accompany customers at all times due to security reasons. No bags are to be left – suitcases are not permitted
Eating facilities	If you have a workshop booking our education space is available to book for use as a lunch area (subject to availability). Alternatively there are a number of spaces, cafes and restaurants in the South Bank area. South Bank Centre located towards Embankment Bridge also has cafes and a large indoor space. Additionally, if the weather is nice, Jubilee Gardens is perfect for outdoor picnic.
Welfare facilities	Toilets are located at the start of the attraction. If toilets are needed before entering or exiting the attraction, guests will need to use those situated within the London Eye ticket hall.
Additional costs	There are photo points and a souvenir gift shop.
Attraction signposting	Tours are operated throughout the attractions and individuals are not left to navigate on their own.

The purpose of this document is to enable schools / groups to use the information provided for the development of visit risk assessments in order to satisfy the obligations placed by the Health and Safety at Work Act and the Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations.
