PUT SUPERSTITIONS TO THE TEST THIS HALLOWEEN SEASON AT THE SAN FRANCISCO DUNGEON

*Attraction to Become the Only Place to Blend Unnerving Superstitions with a Live-Action
Experience Through Nov. 5*

SAN FRANCISCO (August 2017) – This Halloween season, The San Francisco Dungeon will become the only place where daring guests will confront their most unsettling superstitions while experiencing the city's sinister history. The infamous attraction will add the Friday the 13th surprises beginning Friday, Oct. 13.

Unavoidable Friday the 13th-themed tests will be scattered throughout the underground attraction forcing guests to:

- See their reflection in broken mirrors

- Open umbrellas causing potential San Francisco rainstorms
- Witness the shadows of lurking black cats
- Walk under ladders
- Contend with other ominous tokens of bad luck

Neither rabbit feet nor pennies on the ground will be available either to help ward off the bad luck.

Full of menacing characters and spooky surprises, The San Francisco Dungeon is a breeding ground of misfortune and folly – so it is no surprise the attraction will be plagued by bad luck this October. Brave souls looking to tempt their luck and engage in the attraction’s superstitious activities can do so while embarking on a 60-minute journey of thrills, laughs and interactive storytelling through ten dark and amusing storylines. From the Chinatown Plague to the Escape from Alcatraz, each chapter in the already murky story of San Francisco will be a bit more tainted by unlucky charms and unfortunate hexes this Halloween season.

The Friday the 13th-themed storylines will be incorporated into every show at The San Francisco Dungeon beginning Friday, Oct. 13 through Sunday, Nov. 5. The attraction is open from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

The additional thrills are included in regular price of admission. Click here to purchase tickets.

New high-res photography of the new superstitious elements will be available this September. Click here for file photos and video.
