SAN FRANCISCO (September 2018) – Have you ever wondered whether it's really possible to communicate with the spirits of the dead? Do your long-gone loved ones watch over you? Do the deceased have important messages to deliver from the afterlife? Some believe mediums can liaise between the living and the dead, providing rare revelations and spooky insights from beyond the grave. That's why this Halloween,

The San Francisco Dungeon will offer guided séances, offering visitors an uncanny glimpse of the spirits lurking beneath historic Fisherman’s Wharf. The San Francisco Dungeon séances launch Sept. 28, haunting guests until Nov. 4.

The San Francisco Dungeon is the live-action attraction at Fisherman’s Wharf that invites guests to journey through the city’s darkest history. In an atmosphere conducive to spirit-conjuring—think creepy décor and an all-knowing crystal ball—the séance will be included with general admission to The San Francisco Dungeon so that you and your friends will have ample opportunities to meet the dead.

ABOUT THE SAN FRANCISCO DUNGEON

The San Francisco Dungeon is the ultimate live action journey through the city’s murky past where the audience is part of the show. This is the first attraction of its kind in North America, bringing to life the stories of the Bay Area from the last 100 years with a full theatrical cast, special effects, gripping storytelling, 360-degree sets, an underground boat ride and the city’s only underground drop ride, Escape Alcatraz. The San Francisco Dungeon is fully-ADA accessible and located at Fisherman’s Wharf at 145 Jefferson Street next to Madame Tussauds San Francisco. The attraction is open 365 days a year.
